

The 5th International Comics Contest at VK Electronics and Informatics Faculty

Theme: Digital Horizons or Digital Lifestyle Cartoons

Deadline: 07 April, 2022

DESCRIPTION

The contest is held to celebrate World Creativity and Innovation Day!

PARTICIPATION: All persons (students and teachers) are eligible to participate in this contest from college and outside universities.

DEFINITION: A cartoon is a humorous drawing. This may be a caricature, a parody of a real situation, or simply a picture of a funny situation. The cartoon may consist of one image or take the form of a short comic strip. No moving images allowed.

THEME: Take a word or few from any digital life context and create a humorous situation which leads to misconception or misunderstanding how the internet, internet, automation, robotics and smart technologies change or influence our life.

ENTRIES

- Maximum 2-4 submissions/works per person, black and white or coloured.
- The cartoons must contain text regarding any life context.
- Drawings should be made digitally with any computer program or hand drawn/painted.
- Language: English. Each cartoon picture has to be described in few words or a sentence.
- The works must be original. Mind the copyright law.
- Do not forget to write down your name, last name, University (school), study year, study programme and e-mail.

PARTICIPATION: The participant must send his cartoons to all jury members:
